DR. SANSUM RIGHT.
WANT COOLIDGE.
BRITAIN READY.

—By Arthur Brisbane—

(Copyright 1929, By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THE writer has seen Dr. William David Sansum, and can testify that there are many doctors unlike him. He knows his business, and has added to the world's supply of medical knowledge.

His book "The Normal Diet," published in St. Louis by the Mosby Co., should be read by every physician, including those, that, like Dr. Sansum, know their work and take it seriously.

From him you learn what it means to lack acid in the stomach. At 80 years of age, 80 per cent of men lack it entirely, at 70 years, 70 per cent lack it, without it, no complete digestion. You learn why many are too thin, many too fat. The fat are negatively fortunate. If nature had not distributed their surplus fat in layers, over their bodies, and they had been compelled to eliminate it, they would be dead.

Dr. Sansum treats diabetes with a diet, consisting largely of food usually forbidden. And he can make even a layman understand that it is the right diet. It was Dr. Sansum's scientific advice that enabled the witty Sam Blythe to get rid of 60 surplus pounds in a short time. Blythe wrote a book about it entitled "Get Rid of That Fat."

Unfortunately, Dr. Sansum is overcrowded with patients and can undertake no new work until after April 1, at the earliest. So do not come here now expecting to see him.

Old-fashioned doctors laughed at the great Pasteur, and refused to admit him to their academy of science. They would admit him now.

Doctors, open-minded, will want to know of the research work that Dr. Sansum has done and is doing.

Washington reports that "the Administration", which means President Hoover, is anxious to have Calvin Coolidge elected Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. Coolidge would render distinguished service in the Senate. It would be hard for any Senator to talk more than two hours before that cold blue New England eye, and hard for any Senators to spend millions recklessly.

But Mr. Coolidge, like the young gentleman in "Excelsior," doesn't believe in turning back.

He and Mrs. Coolidge fixed the White House all over, cedar closets and everything. When President Hoover is through with it, Mr. Coolidge, it is said, would like to return to the "old home."

Ramsey MacDonald says Britain is not arming against any nation in particular, certainly not against this country. Britain is arming, determined to be prepared, just in case anybody should come along. Wise British, they prepare while we talk.

First little rift in the lute. France refuses consent to an arrangement under which Italy would have a navy as big as that of France.

It is certain that Mussolini will not officially subordinate Italy to any other Latin power.

WATER SUPPLY HAS ATTENTION

Lisbon Plans To Install System Of Filtration To Relieve Present Conditions

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Improvement of the water supply in Lisbon through the installation of a filtration system is being planned for the spring months by the village's board of public affairs.

Complaints entered by residents of the village have been submitted to the board, attacking the present system of supply. Users of water for years, complaints state, have been forced to contend with murky and even muddy conditions at various periods of the year while sometimes it is not fit for use.

There is no immediate way in which the water can be now improved and the present plan will be continued for a short period.

The filtration system will be installed at either the waterworks or north of Lisbon, in the vicinity of other city wells. Water will be passed through the filter and cleared previous to being distributed by mains to users.

Salem Man to Give Address At Meeting

Columbus, Feb. 3.—W. H. Matthews, of Salem, president of the Ohio State Horticulture society, will speak Tuesday at the annual meeting of the society to be held at Ohio State university in conjunction with Farmers' Week.

Matthews will tell of the results of hail insurance after welcoming delegates to the meeting.

Officer Freed

Columbus, O., Feb. 3.—Patrolman Howard Ransom, of the Columbus police force, today had been absolved of all blame in the killing of Donald Kuhn, 17-year-old high school student.

Ransom shot and killed the youth as he and a companion were looting a local grocery store Saturday night.

BELIEVE HEALTH BROUGHT ACTION BEFORE HOOVER

Served As President Of Nation From 1909 To March, 1913

WAS DEFEATED BY WOODROW WILSON

President Has Taken No Steps On Request Of Eminent Jurist

Washington, Feb. 3. — William Howard Taft, chief justice of the United States supreme court, today tendered his resignation to President Hoover.

The resignation was formally presented to the president by the jurist's son, Robert Taft.

The White House announced receipts of the resignation but said no action had been taken.

Taft, in failing health for the last three years because of a bladder ailment, left Washington three weeks ago for a rest curt at Asheville, N. C. Before leaving he spent 10 days in Garfield hospital here.

His physicians announced at that time the eminent jurist and former president of the United States, was not an ill man but merely entered the hospital for treatment precautionary against a recurrence of the old ailment.

Taft was the 27th president of the United States. He was elected November 3, 1908 for the term beginning March 4, 1909 to March 4, 1913. He as renominated for the presidency in June, 1912 but was defeated in the November election by Woodrow Wilson, Democrat.

The resignation was written in legal form and it was indicated Mr. Hoover will accept it with regrets either later today or tomorrow.

The White House said taft's letter "merely followed legal form" and would not be released to the press.

It was further indicated at the executive offices that the jurist's action did not come as a surprise.

Taft is 73 years old and is not the man he was five or ten years ago because of his recent illnesses. Only two years ago he was a patient at Garfield for bladder disorder.

The chief justice will end his stay at the Asheville resort later today and return to his Washington home. He stated this in his letter.

PLANT EMPLOYE DIES AT WORK

Sudden Attack Fatal To Man at Mullins Early Today; Hold Inquest

John Gandor, 48, of Salem, died while working at the Mullins Manufacturing corporation plant here about 7:30 a. m. today.

The man collapsed while working on a grinding machine on the second floor and was taken to the plant hospital. He died without regaining consciousness. The body was taken to the Stark funeral home.

Gandor was a native of Roumania and is survived by a wife and child, both of whom are now residing in that country. He roomed at 750 South Broadway.

Coroner J. M. VanFossan was notified of the case this morning and is scheduled to conduct an inquest this afternoon. Death is said to have been caused by heart failure.

Examiners Work On Records of County

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Examination of all official records of Columbiana county and those of township officers, other than township boards of education is now being conducted at Lisbon by State Examiners Robert Horn and Albert H. Harlett, from the offices of the state bureau of inspection, Columbus.

Horn is in charge of the examination of the county records, while Harkett is in charge of the inspection of township records. Both examiners will likely remain in Columbiana county until June or later. Township records are being examined in the alphabetical order of the townships.

Ohio Man Killed By Hit-Skip Motorist

Yorksville, O., Feb. 3.—The body of Emil Sarzer, 46, steel mill worker, was found on the Ohio river road near here today.

Sarzier had apparently been struck by an automobile, the driver of which failed to stop or to report the accident. The victim suffered a broken neck.

Pastor Held In Shooting

REV. AND MRS. JAMES A. WILSON, of Mendota, Ill. Rev. Wilson is in jail at Ottawa, Ill., charged with assault and intent to kill two of his parishioners. He is alleged to have shot and seriously wounded Mr. and Mrs. James Elliott, who did the janitor work in his church at Mendota. They had in their possession a letter which the minister had written to Mrs. John Wagner, a widow.

CONFESSION OF MURDER SIGNED

Conscience Hurts Man Arrested For Automobile Thefts; Hired For Death

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 3.—George H. Goggins, 30, is being held by police here today in connection with the death of Bert Donaldson, dry investigator, who was shot and killed at Atlanta, Ga., in 1926.

Goggins, who was arrested on a charge of automobile stealing, signed a confession to the murder yesterday, police said. He also confessed stealing 80 automobiles in all parts of the country. He said that his conscience bothered him, and the thoughts of the murder preyed on his mind.

He claimed that he was hired to commit the murder by the proprietor of a roadhouse at Atlanta. Goggins was returned to Lexington from Marietta, Ga., for the theft of an automolle here, according to police.

AIR MAIL FLIER DIES IN CRASH

Plane Hits Post As Pilot Attempts To Land At Airport

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 3.—Cary T. Prigham, 30, of Lexington, Mass., an air mail pilot for the Colonial Air Mail company, was almost instantly killed today, when his Pitcairn plane struck an observation post on a building at Brainard field as he was preparing to land.

The left wing of the plane struck the post and crumpled. The plane kept on for about 100 yards before coming to earth with a crash that practically demolished it.

Pilot Prigham was believed almost instantly killed. The medical examiner, Dr. William Luby stated he believed the cause of death to have been a fractured skull.

The plane was enroute from New York to Boston.

Speaks at Service

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Jeannette W. Emrich of New York City, associate secretary of the Commissioners on International Justice and Committee on World Friendship Among Children spoke at the morning service at the Lisbon Presbyterian church Sunday, and in the evening at the Lisbon M. E. Presbyterian church Sunday, and in the evening at the Lisbon M. E. church. Mrs. Emrich in her addresses referred to the work the church should do among the children of the world.

Burned In Blast

Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—Gus Sandberg, 34, catcher of the Los Angeles Pacific coast league baseball team, was near death here today of burns received when the gasoline tank of his automobile tank exploded. Sandberg thought he had drained the tank and then lit a match to see if it was empty.

SOVIET, FRENCH BREAK APPEARS

Diplomatic Relations of Two Nations Hanging In Balance, Report

Moscow, Feb. 3.—Diplomatic relations between Soviet Russia and France are hanging in the balance, it was learned today.

Izvestia, semi-official government newspaper, issued a "warning" to France today, declaring that normal diplomatic relations are "incompatible with provocative anti-Soviet acts with the aid of white guards."

This harsh tone is believed to be a result of the disappearance in Paris of Gen. Alexei Koutiepoff, chief of the white guard, composed of exiled officers of the former Russian imperial army.

Many Paris newspapers have openly accused the Soviets of kidnaping the general, and according to information here, sentiment in favor of the former czarist general and against the Soviets is running high in Paris.

The Izvestia's "warning" is construed as a word of advice to France not to be concerned over the whereabouts of Gen. Koutiepoff, and not to express too much sympathy with the military elements which oppose the Soviet regime.

STATE HOSPITAL FOR NORTH-EASTERN OHIO PROPOSED BY DOCTOR

Would Take Care of Mentally Diseased From This And Other Northern Counties; Present Institutions Badly Crowded

Construction of a new state hospital for the insane to accomodate mentally diseased persons from Columbiana and six other northeastern Ohio counties, is being planned in the Youngstown area, it was disclosed by Doctor Arthur G. Hyde, superintendent of the state hospital at Massillon, at a meeting held in Columbus Saturday.

Columbiana county has by far exceeded its quota of inmates at the Massillon hospital which is now in a serious condition of congestion.

Dr. Hyde acted in capacity of spokesman in the meeting of superintendents of Ohio's eight hospitals at the state capital and set fourth a solution to the problem of caring for Ohio's mentally diseased. His idea is based on the building of the new hospital in the northeastern Ohio territory, near Youngstown.

Proper care of the insane persons at the Massillon hospital, Dr. Hyde explained, has presented a serious difficulty for several years due to its being over-crowded.

"I feel that the solution of this problem for years to come in this state would be the establishment of a new state hospital in the northeastern part of the state.

Big Territory

"This new hospital could care for Ashtabula, Trumbull, Portage, Mahoning and Columbina counties from our district, and Lake and Geauga counties from the Cleveland district. We then could take back Lorain and Coshocton counties and also Richland County from the Toledo State Hospital district, relieving Toledo and Columbus.

"During the last 10 years our population has increased at least 900 and our admisions this year will be the largest in the history of the institution. There are no indications at present to lead us to believe that there will be any marked decrease in the future. On the other hand, in

WET-DRY ISSUE NOW DOMINANT IN WASHINGTON

Enforcement Control Has Attention of Many Legislators

HOME BREWING NOW DISCUSSION TOPIC

Formation of "Wets" In Organization Seen By Onlookers

Washington, Feb. 3.—The prohibition maelstrom seethed anew in congress today with interest divided between efforts to dry up society, to put federal officials to a "non-drinking" test, to legalize 2.75 beer, to encourage home-brew, to tighten enforcement of the 18th amendment.

The administration's bill, transferring the prohibition bureau to the department of justice, may be formally reported to the house during the day by Chairman Williamson (A) of S. D., of the house committee on executive expenditures. He predicted its passage by the house probably Friday. At the last moment, the bill was amended to give Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon an equal voice with Attorney General William D. Mitchell in the control of industrial alcohol permits.

Home Brew Controversy

The home brew controversy, started by Representative Fort (R) of N. J., close friend of President Hoover, threatened to involve every wet and dry leader in Washington. No recent issue has so bewildered the opposing forces. Fort, a dry, said citizens could drink light homemade beverages in their homes. Prohibition Commissioner James M. Doran, rather non-committal, said his dry agents would have difficulty in arresting anybody who did this. Other drys and a few wets said it was not unlawful. But most of the wets and some drys denounced it as an evasion.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Confident that the prohibition question will dominate congress for the present session, prominent wets today instituted a movement to bring about a bi-partisan leadership over this scattered ranks.

Having suffered because the wet forces have been an army with

Inspector Will Issue School Bus Drivers' Licenses Soon

Lisbon Will Be Scene Of Examinations of Men On Wednesday

Drivers of school busses in Columbiana county will be afforded the opportunity of complying with the state law regarding licenses for drivers on Wednesday at 12 noon when W. M. Crawford, of Carrollton, state inspector of motor vehicles, will be at the sheriff's office in Lisbon to examine those who wish to qualify to drive these vehicles in the state.

Although rigid steps are being taken in Ohio to compel school bus drivers to be licensed, Crawford's visit to Lisbon is merely an accommodation to drivers in this part of the county, who wish to comply with the law.

Other Registration Places

East Liverpool and Canton will be the only places where licenses can be taken out, if drivers fail to appear before Crawford in Lisbon Wednesday.

While the object of Crawford's visit is to license school bus drivers, he will receive applications from truck drivers and others who must be licensed according to Ohio law.

Examination and licensing of every driver of a school bus in Ohio, whether regular or a substitute, will be in force throughout the state within a short period, following a general order, issued by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown through Commissioner Chalmers R. Wilson of the state bureau of motor vehicles and by the latter transmitted to every member of the state's inspection and enforcement body.

Attorney General Rules

Attention is called in the opinion rendered by Attorney General Bettman to the following language employed in Section 12624 General Code of Ohio, as follows:

"Whoever operates a motor vehicle as a chauffeur, without filing in the office of the secretary of state the application required by law and paying the legal fee therefor, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or suspended from the right to apply for registration as a chauffeur for one year, or both."

Inspectors are now concentrating on this work have received from Chief Inspector H. E. Culbert explicit instructions for their procedure in the work of closing potential avenues of death to Ohio's school children. School centers are to be visited and school officials are to be interviewed in order to ascertain the possible hazards in each locality, that methods of prevention may be specially employed at those points.

Equipment of buses is to be thoroughly examined and owners compelled to conform to the letter of the law as to marking all vehicles used for school transportation, lighting of buses and other details making for the safety of those conveyed.

Died Suddenly

HARRY T. HALL

ILLNESS FATAL TO WELL KNOWN BANKING HEAD

Harry T. Hall Dies From Heart Attack While On Trip In West

East Liverpool, Feb. 3—Funeral service for Harry T. Hall, 50, vice president of the Bank of Manhattan Trust company of New York City, and former superintendent of banks in Ohio, who died suddenly of a heart attack in Chicago Saturday, will be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian church in this city. Rev. J. H. Lawther, pastor of the church, will officiate. Burial will be in Riverview cemetery.

The body arrived in East Liverpool this morning and was taken to the home of his brother-in-law, W. E. Dunlap, Park boulevard, where it will remain until the funeral.

The career of Mr. Hall, who was stricken while on a western business trip, reads like a Horatio Alger story. He rose from a bank messenger boy to a high place in Wall Street financial circles and interspersed his activities with the organization of the Dollar Savings bank in East Liverpool, of which he was named cashier.

Once State Bank Examiner

He also served four years as treasurer of Columbiana county and later was appointed state bank superintendent by the late Frank B. Willis, then governor of Ohio.

Mr. Hall was a protege of the late United States Senator Theodore E. Burton. The latter persuaded him to resign the state bank superintendency to become identified with the Merchants National bank in New York, of which Burton, at the time, was president.

The Merchants bank was later consolidated with the Bank of Manhattan Trust company.

Mr. Hall also served as treasurer of the Ohio Bankers' association and was a director of the Ralston Steel Car company of Columbus.

He leaves a widow, nee Bertha Dunlap, a son, Theodore, 12, and a daughter, Frances, 16. He is also survived by his mother, Mrs. William Hall and a sister Mrs. Florence Zimmiger, both of Youngstown.

E. C. BRUMGARD DIES SUDDENLY

Heart Attack Is Fatal To Prominent Columbiana County Resident

Columbiana, Feb. 3.—E. C. Brumgard, 65, of New Middletown, formerly of Columbiana, president of the Columbiana Milling and Supply company, died suddenly of a heart attack Saturday afternoon at the office of his son, Dr. R. E. Brumgard, of Columbiana, who is a dentist.

Mr. Brumgard was not feeling well and had walked from the mill to his son's office. A physician was called, but death came while aid was being given him.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brumgard, he was born at New Middleton, Oct. 19, 1864. He had lived in Columbiana for a number of years and for 18 years was president of the Columbiana Milling and Supply company. Prior to his connection at the mill he was engaged in farming.

He was a member of the Grace Reformed church and held the offices of treasurer and elder in the church.

He is survived by his widow; one daughter, Mrs. Harry Herman, and one son, Dr. Ralph E. Brumgard, of Columbiana; one stepson, Richard at home; one brother, Homer, of North Lima, and two grandchildren.

The body was removed to Fry's funeral home. Monday afternoon it was taken to the home. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon. There will be a short service at the home at 1:30, followed by a service at 2:30 at the Grace Reformed church, Columbiana, in charge of Rev. E. F. Wiest and Rev. O. C. Propst. Burial in Petersburg cemetery.

Alleged Murderer Returned To Scene

Alliance, Feb. 3.—Police Chief Harry L. Stark and Lieut. Earl Shultz arrived in Canton with Harry Reisling, 35, of East Liverpool, wanted in Alliance on a four-year-old murder charge, Sunday.

Reisling was arrested in Texarkana, Ark., where he surrendered to police authorities, saying he wished to clear his name of the charge. He is accused of having slain Kronius Shinikos, Alliance confectioner, in a robbery four years ago.

Safe Robbers Land In Mansfield Jail

Mansfield, O., Feb. 3.—Another attempted safe robbery had been frustrated here today with the arrest of three men who made an alleged attempt to rob the safe of the W. T. Grant company store yesterday.

The men gave their names as Charles Miller, Frank Carlson and James Romano, all of Cleveland.

Clyde Watts, watchman at the store saw the men and called police.

NOTED CANADIAN DIES IN LONDON

President of Mammoth Tea Company Called By Death; Known As Philanthropist

London, Feb. 3.—Peter Charles Larkin, high commissioner for Canada in the United Kingdom since 1922, died here today.

The eminent Canadian business man, economist and philanthropist was 73 years old. He was taken ill while attending the recent reparations conference at The Hague.

A native of Toronto, Ont., Larkin was known as the "tea king of America." He was president of the Salada Tea company, of Toronto, Montreal, New York, Boston and Chicago.

He was regarded as one of the foremost philanthropists of Canada and said to have been the heaviest insured man in the dominion.

He was the first manufacturer to sell tea in sealed packages.

Work On Bridge Is Proceeding Rapidly

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Although weather has prevented pouring of concrete on a new 200-foot bridge spanning Beaver Creek at Fredericktown, fills are being made at both approaches, it was announced today by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk.

It is also said that about 60 days of actual work will complete this structure, which is the last bridge that is to be built on the new East Liverpool-East Palestine road.

The road is now improved between the two cities, and the only detour on the route is a short one around thes new Fredericktown bridge.

SALEM OFFICERS ARREST MAN FOR LIQUOR MAKING

Equipment Is Largest In Dry Raid History Of This City

ALLEGED TRANSPORT MACHINE CAPTURED

Chase on Broadway Ends In Arrest of Man; Charges Filed

One of the principal sources of liquor in Salem and surrounding territory is believed to have been uncovered as a result of a spectacular raid staged by the entire Salem police force on a Newgarden st. residence here Saturday night.

Approximately 500 gallons of mash, about 75 gallons of whiskey, and complete equipment for the production of 50 gallons of distilled whiskey daily, were confiscated by officers.

It was the largest still ever obtained in a raid here, having capacity of 75 gallons, and was discovered in the basement of the house in full operation.

James Landro, alleged operator and owner of the still, was arrested on charges of unlawful possession of implements to manufacture liquors and possessing intoxicating liquors. He will be arraigned before Mayor John M. Davidson on the two counts this afternoon.

Landro was arrested at a Wilson st. residence after he escaped from the Newgarden st property which police allege is his home. The raid on the latter residence was well-planned, with Police Chief T. W. Thompson, Patrolmen Jesse Gray, Wilbur Hiddleson, Ralph Stoffer and William Reardon participating.

Arrest Another Man

Fifteen minutes previous to the raid on Newgarden st Chief Thompson and Patrolman Stoffer arrested Joe Nocero, this city, on charges of possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors following an automobile chase on Suth Bradway. Nocero, who according to police had been under suspicion for several weeks in illicit traffic of liquor, was suspected of having in his possession a quantity of whiskey Saturday night. The two officers fol-

A FAIR MEASURE

Nothing could be fairer than the suggestion by Attorney General William D. Mitchell, that those persons entrusted with the enforcement of prohibition should be sympathetic with it. An employer would not consider assigning work to an employe known to be antagonistic; the comparison with the eighteenth amendment is convincing.

More is necessary in a good enforcement official than mere obedience to the law. There should be actual enthusiasm for it; otherwise the performance of duty becomes a meaningless gesture. Police departments, as far as possible, select men with strong convictions that law and order are superior to crime and lawlessness and are not usually interested in the applicant who has merely evaded disgrace. Prohibition enforcement is a highly specialized form of police work and to be efficacious should be entrusted to men who believe in it.

In a letter written to a friend, Mr. Mitchell says in part: "We do not want fanatics or zealots engaged in prosecuting these cases, but as a mere administrative matter, it is quite obvious to me that efficient, thorough, and diligent work can not be expected of those who patronize illicit traffic in liquors and have definite and decided opposition to the whole principle of prohibition and make it known. I feel, therefore, that it is my duty in passing upon the qualifications of candidates for these posts, to known what their habits are and what their attitude is toward prohibition, and that I could not safely reach a conclusion about their qualifications without knowing these facts."

The prohibition law was passed without complete realization of the difficulties of administration, which have proved to be greater than anyone dreamed of at the time. Ten years have been spent in seeking ways to make it efficient and even the most ardent prohibitionists are willing to admit there is still much to be done. The number of cases constantly arising and the amount of public controversy have made it the major test of administrative power, surpassing all other laws ever enacted in the nation. The appointment of enforcement officials in full sympathy with the Volstead act is a very necessary step toward the ultimate victory of that test.

Since the reorganization of the Canadian rum patrol, six months ago, the liquor run into this country from Canada was reduced from 3,021,245 gallons to 1,500,000. Why wouldn't it be good business on the part of Uncle Sam to discharge his forces and pay Canada to double her force?

The man who shoved you off the sidewalk this morning bears certain resemblances to a kiddy car propelled by steam.

Afganistan has had four kings in a year, but we were in a game recently when it didn't seem like we'd get four kings in a hundred years.

History missed a lot of good opportunities in failing to record the brands of cigarettes smoked by Napoleon, Alexander the Great, Achilles, Hector, Samson and a few others.

It pays to advertise. Detroit has more killings per capita than Chicago, and yet nobody thinks of Detroit as a producer of anything that isn't f. o. b.

Kansas City has completed the world's largest cigar factory and now the problem is to educate the world to smoke the contemplated product.

What Others Say

SHE'S A NICE GIRL!

Pink cherry blossoms of the spring, slant-eyed girls of old Japan in gay kimonos, and a rhythmic graceful dance may not seem dangerous stuffs, but vast and bloody wars have brewed for less inflammable ingredients.

All in all, it looks as if the clever prising Washington business men eager for more gold in their coffers during our capitals famous cherry blossom season, have started something.

The big business men, who promise full hotels when the cherry blossoms blow pink froth across the "Tidal" basin, decided to help nature in a bigger and better way this spring.

The city's chamber of commerce cabled Japan to send over a group of her prettiest geisha girls to dance in national robes among the pink petals of this Occidental city, dispatch has it, when the Federation of Christian Missions with headquarters in Tokio protested the invitation on the grounds that "geisha girls" were not fit companions for ladylike Miss Americas.

American business men in Japan, as well as native Japanese papas and brothers and husbands, saw the red flag when the church people cabled Secretary of State Stimson their protest.

It rather looks as if some one needed to find out just what a "geisha girl" is. As usual, the human tendency to swallow traditional connotation even if careful, rational analysis would fill the traditional interpretation as full of holes as a nice Swiss cheese, seems to have pulled a boner which, to say the least, demands profuse apologies from some one.

For the truth is that though lurid and dishonest fiction might have the wide-eyed reader of trash believe that a geisha girl is merely a nice title for an Oriental daughter of joy and lady of the evening, a geisha girl may really hold the same place of honor and respect and affection in the nation's heart as a Mary Pickford or Ethel Barrymore in ours.

The "geisha girl," as a matter of fact, is honored above girls of other castes in Japan. She must be sans reproche. She is an entertainer, a singer or dancer or reader of poetry. She generally comes from a "high family" and has a real feeling for her "art".

Because an American world can not understand another world's custom of hiring girl entertainers for private parties, it carelessly classifies them for the fun of being shocked.

It seems inexcusable that an American organization right in the midst of the country of the geisha girl could be party to an erroneous conception which might be excused on the basis of ignorance in those who never crossed the Pacific.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

STAMMERING OFTEN A HABIT

Sometimes stammering is brought on by some injury or disease. Usually it begins early in life, even with the first attempts to talk.

DR. COPELAND

It is influenced very much by surroundings, or by any emotion. Fear or fatigue will be found to make it more pronounced. Young men and women are extremely sensitive to this difficulty of speech, when once it has become a fixed habit.

There is a difference between stammering and stuttering. In the latter there is a sort of spasm, particularly when an attempt is made to pronounce the explosive sounds necessary for naming the letters b, d, g, k, p and t.

The treatment for this difficulty of stammering is a matter of education. In the case of young children who have no serious physical defect, or a disease like St. Vitus' dance or paralysis of muscles of speech, it is possible to overcome stammering through patient and persistent effort.

It is found that a young child has difficulty to pronounce certain words, he should be thoroughly examined to see if he has any discoverable physical defect. Enlarged tonsils and adenoids may bring on this trouble. Intense nervousness and a deformity in the nose or throat are often accompanied by speech defects.

The cause should be ascertained and corrected. Then the child should be encouraged to overcome the speech defect. He sould never be made fun of or criticised. Gain his confidence and do everything in a sympathetic manner to assist him to gain his self-control.

Memorizing short poems or prose is a very good practice. Reading aloud very slowly at first and being made to correct each error of speech and pronunciation will help him to gain self-assurance. This comes very gradually, but it is the only way to give the child poise. By reciting to one or two friendly persons the child is given confidence and he will gradually overcome the difficulty.

Both stammerer and teacher will have to exercise much patience. To the young man or woman coming into maturity, such a speech defect is extremely mortifying and the habit, for it is a habit, should be broken when the child is young.

Answers to Health Queries

E. D. D. Q—How can I remove freckles from my face?

2—What should a boy weigh who is 13 years old and 5 ft 2 ins tall?

A—Try applying equal parts of lemon juice and peroxide to the skin.

2—For his age, and height he should weigh about 112 pounds.

M. J. S. Q—What should a girl of 14, 4 ft 10½ in. tall weigh?

2—What should a boy of 16, 5 ft. 5 in. tall weigh?

3—What causes puffiness of the eyelids and what can be done to correct the trouble? The patient is 17 and has had this trouble for three years. He has had kidney trouble.

A—She should weigh about 105 pounds.

2—He should weigh about 125 pounds.

3—This is usually indicative of kidney trouble. A careful urinalysis should help to make a definite diagnosis and then proper treatment can be outlined. Late hours and eyestrain are also possible causes.

J. V. S. Q—What is the cause and what will clear up pimples on the shoulder blades?

A—These blemishes usually denote improper diet and poor elimination. Correct your diet, avoid too many sweets and keep the system clear.

Sally, Q—What do you advise for a condition where the eyelids are swollen and puffed, over the eyes rather than underneath?

A—My advice would be to have your doctor advise you after examination. The trouble may be due to several causes; the kidneys, possible eyestrain, etc., may be at the source.

E. J. Q—What causes the presence of small red veins in the nose—especially at the sides?

2—What causes small white spots under the eyes?

A—This trouble is caused by various disturbances—the digestion is often a factor. Correct your diet and keep the system clear.

2—These blemishes may be due to acne. In this case also the diet and elimination are important.

The Stars Say

For Tuesday, February 4.

Although employment and some business affairs relating to the feminine or domestic side of life may meet with progress on this day, yet there are portents of trickery and duplicity, which may undermine the best endeavors unless extreme wisdom and caution be exercised. All writings should be most carefully signed and every loophole for misrepresentation be circumvented.

Those whose birthday it is may look for a year of advancement or preferment if in the employment of others, or if engaged in matters pertaining to the domestic or feminine side of life. But all matters are in peril from fraud, treachery or misrepresentation unless sagacity be exercised, especially in making contracts or signing papers. A child born on this day should be talented and clever and should attain good position and be popular in employment, but it may lean toward subtle or underhand rather that straightforward methods.

Book Review

Life of the Ordinary Woman
by Anne Ellis

LUCY FITCH PERKINS writes the introduction to this remarkable book by Anne Ellis. Two friends of Miss Perkins were taking a horseback trip through the mountains of Colorado.

One evening they find themselves in a wild region far from their destination. On looking about they see a telephone construction camp not far away and led by the smell of freshly baked bread, they come to the cook tent. Much to their surprise they find a copy of "Hamlet" open on the table.

The owner of the book soon makes her appearance—a tall, slender, middle age woman in a lavender gingham. This person is Anne Ellis, a woman that has been brought up in the poverty of western mining camps. After hearing her story they suggest that she write it just as she has told it to them, so we have "The Life of an Ordinary Woman"—but not at all ordinary. She is clever, courageous, with a great deal of humor and not a little philosophy.

Her opening paragraph arouses one's interest.

"Of course one starts with ancestors. For years I did not know this. I thought one had only a mother, and I yet think of our mother as the ancestor."

And of her father she says:

"My father was the kind who traveled, trusting to Fate to provide, and it did—but Mamma was Fate.

And so Anne Ellis grows up living her own life, from Bonanza to Goldfield and back again, an inhabitant of Bret Harte's country, and a most magnificent woman.

Kif
By Gordon Daviot

"KIF, an unvarnished history" by Gordon Daviot is just what the title says it is, for it is "an unvarnished history" of a boy with a great love of adventure. Up to the time of his fifteenth year, this most predominating element of his character has been kept smothered. For where would a hired boy find adventure? Then at this early age he enlists in the English army and is marched off to France.

Jimmy, a sheep herd and Tim, a London bricker, become his boon companions. Kif is not the ordinary soldier, for his adventurous spirit makes every day one long thrill. In going over the top he doesn't realize the danger or see the horror of it all, by anticipating what he is to meet on the other side.

The war is over, he comes back to London and after the breaking up of his firm, he finds himself penniless. It is then that Fate has him meet an old army acquaintance, "Angel" Carroll. "Angel" takes him home and here one of the most adventurous occupations in the world is opened for him. To tell the rest would be only to ruin the book for you.

Mr. Daviot is a new hand at this game of writing but in his book "Kif" he writes like a master. He allows his characters to disclose themselves by words and actions.

EARLY PLANTED CORN PRODUCES BEST CROPS

The relation of time of planting corn to yield and quality of the crop has been under investigation at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster for twenty years. The largest average yields and best quality as reported by L. E. Thatcher, associate agronomist, were obtained from the early plantings, averaging May 7.

The six plantings each year were made as nearly as possible at ten-day intervals throughout the planting season. The dates varied somewhat from year to year, due to weather conditions.

While the maximum yield of dry shelled corn was for the middate of May 7 plantings, the yields of stover increased as the date of planting became later. The total weight of ear corn and stover increased until the middate of May 27, after which it decreased.

The quality of the crop as indicated by the percentage of moisture at husking time, the shrinkage of ear corn by spring, the test weight per bushel and shelling percentage showed a decrease as the date of planting became later.

The variety of corn used in these experiments is a local strain of the Clarage, which has been grown at the Station since 1892. It matures well without being too early. The variety should be adapted to the locality and length of growing season. The best date for planting will also vary with the locality, being earlier where the growing season is longer and later where it is shorter than at Wooster.

Naval Conference Enters Third Week

FRENCH METHOD OF LIMITATION UNDER SURVEYS

Little Chance of Nation Gaining Points As It Requests

BRITAIN, U. S. ARE AGREED WITH JAPAN

Private Meetings Occupy Time of Delegates During Day

London, Feb. 3.—Entering upon their third week of conferences and discussions, the delegates to the London naval arms conference today were still attempting to agree upon a suitable method of bringing about limitation of armaments.

All the delegations are now pledged to accept a compromise between limitation by categories or by global tonnage but the French compromise now before the conference stands little chance of being accepted as it stands.

The British in particular will insist at tomorrow's meeting of the committee of the whole that there should be considerable adjustment of the modified French proposals especially regarding their division of war vessels into more than six categories.

In addition, the nations preferring limitation by categories—the United States, Great Britain and Japan—will attempt to limit the percentage of transfers from one category to another to a negligible quantity while France will insist upon 25 per cent.

The British will furthr insist that there shall be no transfers between the three major categories, battleships, 8-inch cruisers, and aircraft carriers, and are anxious to prevent transfers from surface vessel tonnage to submarine tonnage.

Until these questions are settled, it will be difficult for the delegates to approach an agreement on figures of tonnage.

Today's program was confined to private meetings at which the various delegates compared notes on their written observations on the French compromise proposal which are to be submitted at the conference tomorrow.

Township Trustees Act On Suggestions At Gathering

Action effecting future legislation by Ohio judicial and executive bodies was taken in recommendations made during the state association of township trustees in Columbus which was attended by A. I. Getz, vice-president of the Columbiana county township board of trustees in Columbus which was attended by A. I. Getz, vice-president of the Columbiana county township board of trustees and John M. Kerr, Wellsville.

The association opposed any legislative acts that would deprive people in rural areas of their local self-government. It went on record as favoring the American principle of representative governments and opposed any amendment to the laws providing for this system.

Action was also requested in the passage of laws to require all school busses to mark both front and rear of the vehicle with the words "school bus". The association asked that township officials be empowered with licensing of dance halls, carnivals, rinks and other entertainments outside of municipal corporations in an amendment of section 13393 of the general code of Ohio.

Issue was taken with inadequacy of the general funds of all townships in providing for relief of poor and needy in rural districts. A provision for relief was asked from the state taxation committee. The association called to the attention of this committee repeated promises for the reduction of burdens in taxation rates as now are borne by real estate and farm owners and insisted that the pledges be carried out.

A share in the distribution of Ohio's gas tax revenue was requested by the township group due to the fact that all state motorists, residing in both urban and rural districts, contribute to the revenue.

KIWANIS BACK OF J. P. NEILL

Leetonia Club on Record As Favoring Actions of Sperintendent

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—John P. Neill, superintendent of the Columbiana county home, against whom a petition was recently filed with the county commissioners asking for his removal from that office, has been given a vote of confidence by the Leetonia Kiwanis club.

The petition asking for the removal of Neill was signed by Mrs. Kittie L. Rothwell, of East Palestine, president of the Columbiana County W. C. T. U., who signed the petition against Neill as "complainant."

The resolution of confidence adopted by the Leetonia Kiwanians reads:

"Whereas, it has come to the attention of this club that the record of Mr. John P. Neill, as superintendent of the Columbiana county infirmary is being attacked; and

"Whereas, we have knowledge of the success of his management of the infirmary whereby thousands of dollars have been saved to the taxpayers of this county, without at any time neglecting the comfort or welfare of the inmates of the infirmary;

"Now therefore, be it resolved, that the Leetonia Kiwanis club express its confidence in Mr. John P. Neill as superintendent of the Columbiana county infirmary, and that this club commend him for his efficient management. And be it further

"Resolved, that the text of this resolution be sent to the honorable board of county commissioners, and that Mr. Neill be advised of this action."

FARMERS GATHER AT COLUMBUS IN YEARLY MEETING

State University Scene Of Eighteenth Annual Sessions Today

ARTHUR M. HYDE TO GIVE MAIN ADDRESS

Extension Specialist In Crops and Soils Makes Report of Project

Columbus, O., Feb. 3.—From every corner of Ohio and from several adjacent states, farm families have been arriving today on the campus of the Ohio State university here, where the university's 18th annual Farmers' week opened this morning.

Before noon, every department of the college of agriculture had its own departmental meetings under way, but the principal attraction was the general program which included the annual state meeting of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

The headline speaker on the general program was Arthur M. Hyde, United States secretary of agriculture. From the Ohio Farm Bureau federation itself, came L. B. Palmer, president, and M. D. Lincoln, secretary, with their annual reports to the members of the farmers' organization. Other addresses on the general program were from agricultural and home economics experts from the Ohio State university and other states.

669 Farmers Enrolled

In the past 10 years more than 670 Ohio farmers have enrolled in the 100-bushel corn project sponsored by the agricultural extension service of the university, and more than 150 of them have attained the objective of more than 100 bushels of corn to the acre. J. A. Slipher, extension specialist in crops and soils, summarized the methods which the 600 have used, and gave conclusions drawn from them.

"The outstanding thing in the whole picture," said Slipher, "was that it cost more money per acre to grow 100 bushels of corn to the acre but corn is sold by the bushel and not by the acre. The cost of growing a bushel of corn, where the yield was 60 bushels an acre, has averaged 38 cents. The cost of growing a bushel where the yield has averaged 120 bushels to the acre, has been only 22 cents. Connected with these high yields have been the factors of rate of planting, deep plowing, careful selection of variety and seed, use of legumes before the corn, early planting, and generous use of fertilizer. Every one of these shows a close relation to the high and consequently profitable, acre yield."

L. A. Stearns, entomologist at the Delaware State Agricultural Experiment station, another speaker, told the Ohio State Horticultural society at the opening session of its 63rd annual meeting, that the year 1929 saw both a revival and an extension of the activities of the Oriental Peach moth, one of the serious insect threats to the Ohio fruit crop. Stearns held out the hope that parasites will eventually be a great aid in controlling the pests, and at the same time outlined other plans of battle—sprays, cultivation, sanitation, and other practices—which will help in the control of the pest.

Tonight, members of the Ohio Farm Bureau will present a pageant at the University chapel. The pageant was written by Miss Varna Ettinger of the state staff of the federation.

At 6 o'clock this evening four Ohio farm women will be invested with the title of "Master Farm Homemaker" by a national magazine for farm women, and will be guests of honor at a recognition dinner.

STATE HOSPITAL

this thickly populated and progressive manufacturing district, I believe that we will be called upon to accept more patients from year to year."

Condemns Jail Methods

Dr. Hyde condemns the practice of some counties in incarcerating insane persons, and other persons who are mentally sick, in jails.

"To authorize or approve such practice is to revert to the dark ages," he declared.

"Mental sickness is now as commonly accepted among educated people as physical illness, and it is no more a disgrace to become ill mentally than physically," he said.

Building Crowded

When asked why mentally sick persons of the Youngstown area were not readily being admitted to the Massillon institution, Dr. Hyde produced figures to show that his institution already is overcrowded, and is now carrying over 700 more patients than it is equipped to handle.

"We simply have not had the hardness of conscience necessary to turn these extra sick folks away," he explained, "and so we took them in and are doing the best we can by them."

The present population of the Massillon hospital is 2,608, of whom 1,227 are women, and 1,381 are men. In the 10 years just past, the number of patients has increased 893.

The gain has been the most rapid of any of the eight state insane hospitals, as it draws from a population over 300,000 larger than the next greatest, which is located in Cleveland.

"The erection of another hospital in the densely populated counties of northeastern Ohio is becoming an acute necessity, and it is the plan to ask the next state legislature to provide for the building of a new institution in the Youngstown district."

Teriffic Blast Occurs In Chicago; Several Are Slightly Injured

Chicago, Feb. 3.—A powerful dynamite bomb exploded here today, reducing the one-story fruit and vegetable store of Sam Madonia to a mass of twisted wreckage.

Several persons were injured by flying bits of glass and plaster.

The explosion spread terror throughout a large area of the west side, rousing sleeping families who hurried to the street in freight.

Madonia's store and the stock it contained was completely obliterated.

Wreckage from the roof and walls and fruit and vegetables were hurled a block away; some of the flying debris smashed windows and tore off roofs.

A neighboring meat market and tailor shop were also wrecked.

What was left standing by the bomb was destroyed by flames which followed immediately.

Patrick J. Sherman, owner of the building, was blown from his bed and cut by flying glass. He was unable to give any reason for the place being bombed.

Others injured were Samuel Tumia; Nicholas Arciure, his wife, Angela; Mrs. Anna Ciei; two unidentified women and Policeman Joseph Jelinek.

Windows were broken and plaster cracked as far as three blocks from the scene of the blast. According to police it was one of the worst in Chicago's history, and authorities at first thought gas had caused the blast.

A watchman nearby told police he saw an automobile speed away from the building a few minutes before the explosion.

Murderer Pays With Life For His Deed

Rockview Penitentiary, Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 3.—Guiseppe ("Joe") Guida, 37-year-old millworker of Bristol, Pa., paid with his life in the electric chair today for the "love triangle" murder of John Tillot, husband of the woman the little Italian loved.

Guida, smiling and unafraid, "rode the thunderbolt" into oblivion at 7:06 o'clock this morning. The lethal charge of current hurtled through his body at 7:02 a. m., and he was pronounced dead four minutes later by Dr. W. B. McLaughlin, prison physician.

School Boy Shoots Athletic Director

Stanton, Ky., Feb. 3.—Belgrade Harr, 16-year-old Stanton high school student, today had been charged with the shooting of Ernst Byrd, athletic director of the high school, whom he is alleged to have shot Saturday night, when Byrd refused him entrance to a basketball game at the school.

Physicians said that Byrd had an even chance for recovery. The bullet struck him above the eye and ranged upward toward his brain.

Live Steam May Be Fatal to Workmen

Alliance, O., Feb. 3.—Seared by live steam when a crane toppled and overturned at the American Steel foundry today, two men were reported dying. They are Dominic Margson, 23, and Clyde Bosley, 38, both of Alliance.

Preliminary investigation of the accident revealed that the crane was overloaded, causing it to topple and fall.

Pastor Resigns Post

East Liverpool, O., Feb. 3.—After 44 years of service as Pastor of St. John's Luthern Church here, Rev J. G. Reinarta resigned his pulpit today.

"Each cough hurt ME more than it hurt Johnny"

"My elder sister's boy was staying with us for the Christmas vacation. So when he caught a cough I felt doubly anxious. I just had to make him well again. I immediately gave him some Smith Brothers' Cough Syrup which I myself used before. It worked as well with Johnny as it did with me—better! And Johnny actually liked the syrup—he said 'It's like candy'. He lost his cold completely in a couple of days." MRS. SAM COUZENS, New York City.

'Best Friend' Shot; Slayer Surrenders

Columbus, O., Feb. 3.—Michael Tomio, 40, is being held by police here today for the alleged murder of his best friend, Angelo Rosso, 41.

The shooting occurred in Tomio's home here last night, when he fired all seven shots of a large-caliber pistol into Rosso's head and chest.

Tomio gave himself up to police and told them that Rosso had objected to a contemplated robbery which he and eight other men had planned. The men were to go to West Virginia to rob bootleggers and jewelers. The venture was expected to net them about $12,000,000, of which Tomio was to receive $8,000,000, he said.

The friendship of the two men started in Italy more than 20 years ago.

Card Game Argument Results In Slaying

Dayton, O., Feb. 3.—Ernest Miller, 40, is dead here today, the result of an argument over a card game, at the National Military home, here last night.

His companions, James Moore, 39, Frank Sheehan, 38, and Charles H. Fisher, 39, were placed under arrest as federal prisoners.

Death was said to have resulted from a blood clot on Miller's brain. Sheehan was charged with delivering the fatal blow.

Liverpool Man Hit By Interurban Car

East Liverpool, Feb. 3.—Raymond Price, 30, East Liverpool potteryworker, is in city hospital here suffering from serious injuries sustained when he was struck by a Y. and O. street car here Sunday night.

Price sustained cuts about the head and a badly crushed right hand which may be amputated. Full details of the accident were not available today.

WINONA

Mrs. Anna Oliphant entered the Salem City hospital for observation and treatment Thursday. Her son, Joseph Holloway, of Oberlin college, is spending a few days at home on her account.

At a well attended meeting of the Winona Methodist Ladies' Aid held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Bennett Thursday, a covered dish dinner was served at noon and plans were formulated for the social to be held at the church on the evening of Feb. 13, when a supper will be served.

The care of clothing meeting which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Anna Oliphant, Friday, was held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Bennett, on account of Mrs. Oliphant's illness. About 30 women were in attendance. Miss Edith Holmberg, county agent, was present and the discussion was lively and interesting. Removal of spots from clothing and the care of special articles of apparel, as gloves and hosiery, was featured.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Edgerton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andre and Miss Esther Satterwait went to Warren Friday evening to attend the I. O. A. banquet held there. Frank Grimes, the founder and president, of Chicago, was present and gave an excellent talk and an especially interesting evening was enjoyed.

Damascus and Winona Friends schools held a joint literary Friday evening under the teachers, Miss Louisa Stanley, Winona, and Mrs. Lenna Mae Warrington, Damascus. There was a good attendance and a program of recitations, playlets and other literary features was rendered in an interesting manner.

BOMBERS ROCK KANSAS HOTEL

Bad Aim May Have Saved Lives Of Many In Big Building

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 3.—The poor aim of racketeers probably saved the lives of many persons here today when a bomb was tossed into the show window of a drug store in the lobby of the commodore, fashionable southside hotel.

The missile struck a corner of the window casing and fell to the ground, tearing a large hole in the pavement as it exploded. Windows in the hotel were broken as high up as the tenth floor. The drug store was heavily damaged.

Panic stricken by the terrific detonation, 125 guests fled from the hotel, some in their night clothing.

Harry Goldberg, manager of the hotel, blamed labor trouble for the bombing.

mere generals than privates, the wets who see their first chance in years to make inroads on the drys are insistent upon an air-tight organization.

Wets Are Leaderless

The senate wets are virtually leaderless since Senators Bruce of Maryland and Edwards (D) of New Jersey became ambassador to Paris.

Senator John J. Blaine (R) of Wisconsin is rapidly being recognized as the unofficial spokesman for the senate anti-prohibitions, with Senator Millard Tydings (D) of Maryland and Senator David I. Walsh (D) of Massachusetts the most militant of the Democrats.

A fight for leadership of the house vets was temporarily settled when representative Linthicum (D) of Maryland was re-elected chairman of the "wet bloc" and Representative James Beck (R) of Pennsylvania was named chairman of its executive committee.

Rep. Dyer (R) of Missouri has emerged as the director of the wets fight for 2.75 percent beer, while Representatives La Guardia (R) of New York, Schafer (R) of Wisconsin and Black (D) of New York have carried the brunt of floor battles.

Many house wets have picked Representative Beck as their potential spokesman. A former solicitor-general and a noted constitutional authority, he is recognized as the Premier orator of the house. The wets are looking forward to his promised speech next Friday.

Representative Fiorvich (D) of New York, a physician, seized the leadership of the movement to ban poisoned alcohol, and is expected to be supported by the "wet bloc."

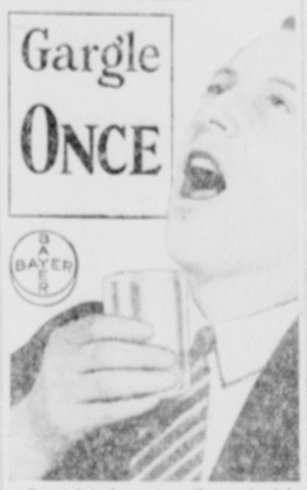
Gargle ONCE



One trial shows how Bayer Aspirin relieves sore throat; dissolve two tablets in quarter of a glass of water, and gargle well! Until you've tried it, you can't believe how quickly you get complete relief. You've often been advised to gargle for sore throat or tonsilitis, but it is what you gargle that counts. Gargle Bayer Aspirin, and you get results. Real relief, and the infection effectually reduced. To break up a cold, stop neuralgic pains, and headaches from any cause, physicians say there's nothing better than Bayer. They will tell you, too, it does not depress the heart. So you're safe if the box says Bayer! All druggists. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer manufacture of monoaceticacidester of salicylicacid.

NINE INJURED BY COLUMBUS AUTOS

Eight - Year - Old Boy In Accident; Five Hurt In Street Crash

Columbus, O., Feb. 3.—Nine persons including one 8-year old boy, were injured in automobile accidents here over the weekend, a check-up revealed today.

Byron Casper, 8, suffered scalp lacerations, several fractured ribs and bruises when he was struck by an automobile which was driven by E. M. Reed, of Middletown. Reed was exonerated.

Mrs. Henrietta E. Parker, 52, was severely cut on the head when she slipped and fell on the side of a parked automobile.

Ben Allen, 42, was critically injured when he was run down by an automobile which was driven by Frederick Reible.

A fractured arm and serious internal injuries were suffered by Mrs. E. E. Bird, 50, when she was struck by an automobile which was said to have been driven by Harry Washburn.

Five persons were injured when two automobiles collided at a downtown street intersection. The injured are William Stewart, Mrs. Twilla Carter, her husband and their two children, Twilla,7, and Betty, 9. All were passengers in Stewart's car, which was struck by an automobile driven by Harry Kuehne.

Salem People To Attend Meetings

Representatives of the Salem Friends church will attend the sessions of Damascus Quarterly meeting of Gurney Friends which will be held Friday afternoon and Saturday at the Alliance Friends church.

Among the visitors expected are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frazier, two Kickapoosh Indians from an Oklahoma reservation; Rev. Samuel Mosher, Cardington, superintendent of Ohio Yearly meeting, and Rev. Calvin Choate, of Greenleaf, Idaho, who is holding meetings at the East Goshen Friends church.

Wounds Result In Death of Bandit

Mansfield, O., Feb. 3.—Lee Harris, negro bandit, is dead at General hospital here today, from wounds which he received Jan. 25, when he was shot by a Pennsylvania railroad detective.

Harris was alleged to have robbed two stores here and was attempting an escape. The detective found him at the railroad station buying a ticket, and when Harris ran away, the officer shot and wounded him.

DRY RAIDS

lowed him in the city police car and ordered him to stop. He refused and added speed but was forced to stop when the police car overtook him near the Columbia st. intersection and forced him off the street into the curbing.

Nocero jumped from the machine and attempted to escape but was quickly overtaken after a chase, by Stoffer. Thompson searched the automobile and reported today that three gallons of whiskey were found in the rear seat.

The man was handcuffed and brought to city jail. Mayor Davidson was called from his home at 2 a. m. Sunday and released him pending arraignment at 7 p. m. today, on 1,000 bond on each of the two charges.

Fifteen minutes later the entire police force assembled at headquarters and proceeded to Newgarden st, where they searched two residences, adjoining each other. The officers divided forces, part of them guarding the rear of the houses while others conducted inside searches.

Find Still In Basement

At No. 385, the still, mash and liquor were found in an especially built basement for manufacture of liquors. Landro, alleged to have been operating the still when the officers entered the house, effected his escape through a rear exit, made his way through the backyard and eluded Patrolman Reardon, who started pursuing him, in a barn. The barn was given a thorough search by Reardon, Stoffer and Gray but the man made his escape through a secret exit.

Returning to the house, Stoffer and Reardon found men's clothing which revealed Landro's name and the address of a friend on Wilson st, where he occasionally made his home. Believing that the man had made his way to this address, Thompson detailed Reardon to continue the search for him and make inquiries at this residence.

On arriving there, entrance was refused Reardon by the owner of the house who told him that his wife and he were the only occupants of the place. His wife, he said, was seriously ill in a bedroom. Suspicious of the man's story, Reardon continued search of the house and discovered the woman, fully dressed, in an upstairs bedroom, while another man, apparently asleep, was found in an adjoining room.

Claims He Is Innocent

The man claimed innocence but was taken by Reardon to Newgarden st where he was quickly identified as Landro. He was handcuffed and placed under guard while search of the house was continued.

The mash was stored in 10 barrels. One full barrel of whiskey, 52 gallons, and two ten-galon kegs of whiskey, were also discovered in secreted compartments of the cellar.

Keeping only a small amount of the liquors for evidence, the mash and whiskey were dumped into a sewer while the still was taken to city hall where it is now on display in Mayor Davidson's office.

Landro underwent further questioning in Chief Thompson's office on return to headquarters but he refused to divulge further facts concerning his complicity in liquor traffic here.

VICTIM BEATS HOLDUP PAIR

Two Arrested Following Attempt To Rob Man; Others Foiled

Columbus, O., Feb. 3.—Would-be holdup men met opposition in their victims over the week-end, according to police reports here today. Two holdups were frustrated when the victims disarmed their assailants and beat them with their own revolvers. Two other alleged bandits were being held in the city prison for investigation.

Two men accosted A. L. Chatfield who disarmed them in the tussle, one of the men regained possession of the revolver, but the arrival of Patrolman Lyons resulted in his arrest. The other man escaped but was later captured at his home, following the confession of his companion. The men arrested gave their names as Thomas Moore, 19, and Robert Jennings, 24, both negroes.

Two other robbers failed in their attempt to gather any loot, when they lined up four men, their hosts, in a card game. Rogers one of the men lined up, snatched the gun from one of the attackers. Both bandits fled and made their escape in an auto.

Another pair of bandits made good. The men entered the cab of C. F. Sullivan, and after threatening him with a revolver, delivered him safely to his home. The cab was found later, near the scene of the robbery.

Another taxi-cab driver was relieved of his cash and auto by a lone bandit.

Undergoes Remarkable Return To Health

Fainting Spells Stop, Liver Spots Go, and Amazing Change Takes Place in Mrs. Furney, Fifth St., (Canton) Lady, Through the Help of Owa-Ton-Na — Regains Forty-Five Pounds.

MRS. VIOLA FURNEY

Feeling stronger than she has for years, even though at the most critical time of a woman's life, Mrs. Viola Furney, 341 5th St., N.E. says "I had been told there was no help for me and as a last resort Owa-Ton-Na was recommended. I was fighting a hopeless case. The more medicine I took the worse I would get. My condition was steadily getting worse. I was as thin as a rail and I was so weak that when I got one of my fainting spells, I just felt there was no help for me."

"My body was covered with liver spots. I was terribly constipated and my back pained me terribly. Food did not seem to do me any good and I was always troubled with sourness and gas."

"You can imagine how discouraged I was when I started to take Owa-Ton-Na, but it wasn't until I had taken Owa-Ton-Na that fine old Indian remedy, that I really began to build up my strength. Owa-Ton-Na is the only medicine that rid me of the terrible sinking spells that would leave me in a weakened condition. Liver spots are gone, my food tastes fine, and I have no more sourness. Constipation is a thing of the past and hemorrhoids which I suffered with for years are almost gone; but best of all I have gained 45 pounds. To gain that much my digestive organs certainly must be in much better condition."

"Women who are passing through that critical period of middle age should not be without Owa-Ton-Na a day. It certainly keeps the body in a normal condition and eliminates harmful poisons which tend to accumulate."

Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at Floding's, Bolger & French and J. H. Lease drug stores.—Adv.

Five Games On Salem High Basketball Schedule This Week

Varsity Teams To Meet Lisbon, Warren: Scrubs Will Play East Liverpool

The fast dwindling basketball season brings Salem High's varsity basketball teams into competition twice within one week once more. Lisbon and Warren High tossers being scheduled to furnish opposition for the Red and Black in two home games here, Friday and Saturday.

Fourteen games remain on the schedule for the three Salem teams. Six are yet to be played by the boys' varsity, five by the girls and three by Coach H. C. McCord's reserve flippers.

Three of the remaining games for Stone's team will be played here while the other trio are scheduled away from home. Welleville is played at Welleville, Feb 14 following which Dayton Kiser High plays here, Feb. 15.

Two contests on foreign courts, with Alliance and Struthers close the season for the Stonemen on Feb. 21 and 22, respectively.

Lassies Play Lisbon

Coach Anne Oelschlager's lassies meet Lisbon and Warren sextets here this week then play Sharon, Pa. High here next Saturday. Sharon gave the lassies their worst trouncing of the year at Sharon two weeks ago. A game with the strong Struthers High maidens, at Struthers on Feb. 22 closes the season.

The reserves oppose East Liverpool scrubs in the first prelim here Saturday night, then in a week play North Canton High. Their season comes to an official end Feb. 21 with a game at Alliance.

The reserves have by far the best record of any of the three Salem teams, winning nine out of 12 games. The varsity boys' have won seven and lost eight while the girls have won five, lost five and tied one.

Campbell Tossers Nose Out Alliance

Alliance High's crippled cage aggregation dropped a tough 21-19 decision to Campbell Memorial at Campbell Saturday night.

The game was close throughout but Campbell held a lead of two and three points practically the whole game. With less than a minute to play Wilcosen's lads knotted the score at 19-all but a sensational heave from the center of the court by Lycowski, Campbell forward, ended the contest.

The Alliance team showed strength despite the loss of three stars by mid-year graduation.

Dover High Loses Fourth Cage Game

Dover High lost its fourth game of the season, Saturday night, being trimmed 26-23, by Uhrichsville in a thriller at Dover High gym.

Sucker Low was the star of the game, snagging 12 points but received little assistance. Dover was outclassed by a wide margin in the first half but staged a rally in the third quarter to knot the count at 16-16.

Uhrichsville again outclassed them in the final session to outscore Coach Peterka's team and eke out the decision.

McKinley Defeats Steele With Ease

Dayton Steele was outclassed in every department of the game by the strong Canton McKinley squad and was defeated, 24-16 at Dayton Saturday.

McKinley led practically all the way and made several substitutions which kept the score down. Black, with 13 points, led Canton's attack.

Steele connected for only five field goals during the game.

Massillon Trounces Youngstown Chaney

Youngstown Chaney proved no match for the powerful Massillon High tossing crew and dropped a 27-12 decision at Massillon Saturday night.

Massillon won as it pleased and outclassed the Youngstown team all the way. Coach Hal Smith used 12 players in the game and held Chaney to four field buckets.

"What's the matter with your face? It looks like it is sunburned?"

This is what a friend asked me after I returned from a fishing trip on the ice of a small lake near here. It was really cold, particularly so for those who are not used to it. My face had taken on rather a red hue from the stiff wind.

He asked if we had caught any fish. I told him and he said that was the reason he hated fishing. No use, he claimed, to waste a day and not get anything for your pains. I replied that although we did not get any fish, it was fun to track a rabbit for several hundred yards and jump him from a small clump of bushes. It was also a pleasure to hear several wild tales of crows after a pair had sailed over us and also the discussions as to what a large hawk found to eat here in the winter when one sailed past.

Then, too, it was not hard to listen to the farmer who owned and enlarged the lake, when he told of blasting out a spring hole in the muck on one shore line and giving a 26-pound "torkle" a ride 300 feet into the air and then capture him "Near that there timber over yon."

I did admit that there was not as much attraction in winter fishing as in summer, as the wild life that attends angling is not present as it was that day on a Michigan lake, when the red-winged blackbirds were feeding on the dragon flies as they came out of the swamp. The dragon flies were clever in aerial stunting and the birds were a bit better; so some real "dog fights" resulted.

Then, too, there was that morning in the fog on a big northern lake when we watched a deer swimming, just at the edge of visibility, and to see the deer suddenly "explode" and turn out to be a mother duck and her brood. It might have been the same brood we were watching later in the day when it scuttled to the reeds and melted out of sight, just as the shadow of an eagle passed across the water.

I also recalled, for his benefit, a fight between a number of crows and a hawk above us on the Walhounding one day, when a number of buzzards, at a higher altitude, appeared to be interested spectators as they hung almost motionless in the sky.

He kept on listening, so I recalled a green worm on the stem of a weed that grew on the bank of the Muskingum and a small, hard, green fly that killed it after a battle and then as the fly started to devour a portion of it, a "yellow jacket" came along and a tug of war followed.

The yellow jacket let loose and the strain was too much for the green fly. He and his kill fell to the ground, where he continued his interrupted meal.

I told him of the time I saw an ant, or different ants, racing from one hole to another and I placed a pebble on the hole he had just left. Then when the ant returned to the pebble, he tried his best to dislodge it and then returned to the hole from whence he came and, with the aid of a number of ants whom he had unmistakably recruited, the barrier was removed. This occurred several times.

I could have told him of the eagle at Vermilion we used to feed, the antics of sea gulls, the weasel that captured a young muskrat, the kingfisher that "cussed" when he would miss his minnow after a dive, the big crane that was spearing fish or any other of a vast number of things that were incidental to catching fish; in fact, things mighty interesting that would have escaped observation had you been intent on fishing.

The late Dr. James A. Henshall was emphatic in his statement that "all in fishing is not fish" and told the following story to emphasize his words.

"As I was landing a fish, I saw a woman at the top of the bluff, looking for a way down to the yacht. She was a quite fresh and comely looking woman, too.

"She started down very carefully, as it was wet and quite slippery. I became interested in how she would succeed.

"Suddenly her bare feet slipped from under her and she came down with a rush, her one garment, as I soon discovered, an old calico gown, slipping back over her head, disclosing her nude form which appeared quite white in contrast to the red clay.

"Then I looked the other direction just as she flipped from a prone to a supine position. When she reached the river side, she looked like a sculptor's model in clay. She quietly adjusted her gown and asked: 'Has You-uns got any matches? We-uns' all got wet in the drizzle last night and I want to cook my old man's breakfus'."

"I pulled ashore and scarcely knew what to say. Finally I remarked that sheh ad better change her dress before she cooked breakfast.

"'I hain't got another one,' she replied.

"While the boys were eating breakfast of fish, deer steak and broiled duck, I told them of the toboggan episode and mentioned the 'one frock.' When the meal was concluded the boys chipped together with the skipper of the yacht and we made a trip to the woman's home and presented her with several pairs of slippers, some long woolen stockings, underclothing, blankets, calico and muslin, together with some ducks and venison.

"The woman was overcome with gratitude."

Salem Lassies Register Win

Leavittsburg Loses To Red and Black Sextet By 25-22 Score

Salem High girls registered their sixth victory of the season, defeating the Leavittsburgh High sextet, 25-22, in a thrilling contest at Leavittsburgh's home gym Saturday night.

The Red and Black lassies held the lead by a wide margin of points throughout the first three periods, outclassing the Class B sextet in every department of the contest until the fourth quarter. Leavittsburg staged a thrilling rally in the final session and almost nosed out the Salem crew.

Anna Zelle, scoring ace of the Salem team, led the scoring sharing honors in offensive play with Burt. Margaret Reich and Zella Kreppe starred in defensive work.

Salem High reserves trimmed Leavittsburg, 28-17, in the preliminary, holding the edge all the way and proved superior in both offensive and defensive play.

PLEASANT RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Shoulders droop under weight of years. Young, yet beauty has fled. Cheeks are sallow and drawn. Unsightly pimples. Keep your system clean and you keep the beauty of youth. Its energy. Its irresistible charm. Then life is not a failure.

Clogged bowels and inactive liver cause poisons to seep through the system. Health vanished and with it beauty and energy. Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets will help save you from this dark hour. For 20 years they have been prescribed in place of calomel to men and women seeking health and freedom from constipation. They act easily and smoothly. No dangerous griping. Take nightly before retiring. Results will amaze you.

Thousands of men and women would never be without Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, a vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c. All druggists.

Baseball Boils With Annual Salary Duel Between Players And Managers Waxing Hotter

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Feb. 3.—The annual hoof and mouth convention, so called because it is equally hard on each, will get under way today with the annual meetings of the International and Eastern leagues, followed by the schedule meeting of the National league tomorrow. They hold a schedule meeting every year, largely because it feels so good when they stop. There is no other purpose for the thing, since the schedule is always approved, ad lib and per se, but there is ever the possibility that a magnate will lose his presence of mind under a potted palm in the lobby and so commit himself to something really constructive. This possibility breathes life and hope into a program that otherwise is defunct, by choice.

Dodgers Are Active

The Brooklyn Dodgers, for instance, may try to hook Dazzy Vance to the Cubs or Pirates or any other club that is willing to support the Dazzler in the manner to which he is accustomed. This presents about $20,000 a year in money, not to mention the players that would be tossed in by way of emphasis and for good measure, as the interest of the meeting in Mr. Vance may turn out to be pardonably tepid.

Perhaps the Pittsburgh club will try to do something with Burleigh Grimes, another fretful young man who has a vulgar interest in money, thereby differing from the average club owner. The latter has absolutely no interest in money, as long as it isn't his. Adolfo Luque may be offered for trade by the Reds and the Cubs are understood to be about to swing a deal with another first division for a catcher but otherwise nothing is supposed to be contemplated. This is ominous. Baseball has a genius for doing nothing that is expected of it and by nightfall it may have half of the National league traded to Fort Wayne, Ind.

Brooklyn Has Trouble

The so called Brooklyn situation will go for another airing and this time it probably will be settled definitely, for it is all very simple. The only trouble in Brooklyn is that President Wilbert Robinson refuses to fire Manager Wilbert Robinson at the suggestion of Vice President McKeever, who signs the pay checks.

Vice President McKeever refuses to sign the pay check for President Robinson who refuses to fire Manager Robinson, proving beyond all about that he is a very headstrong fellow. Meantime, the ball club is getting along great or greatly, as we say at the feed store, and is getting resolutely ready to finish last.

Something, too, may break on the holdout situation, it being admitted that such a thing exists, except at the offices of the local American league ball club, where Babe Ruth is employed. Vance was cut $10,000 a year, Freddie Lindstrom $2,000 a year, Ed Roush $14,000 a year and Dave McWeeny $4,000 a year. None of them are angry, of course, just terribly hurt. As for Mr. Roush, he probably will be willing to compromise he takes the $14,000 that was mashied off his salary and let the ball club have the $7,000 that remains. He is very big about things like that.

However, it will be well if we don't look for too much from the baseball men. There may not be enough potted palms to go around and, besides, some of the magnates may find themselves at a disadvantage in these surroundings. A palm is not always potted.

Winning Streak of Pitt Team Ended

The sensational winning streak of the University of Pittsburgh Panthers came to a spectacular close when the Syracuse U. tossers stopped Charley Hyatt and gained a 40-29 verdict, Saturday.

It was the lowest score that Pitt has been held to in three years of basketball. Hyatt was held to two field goals.

LEETONIA

Mandell Battles On Cleveland Club Bill

Cleveland, Feb. 3.—Sammy Mandell, king of the lightweights, will oppose Joey Goodman, ambitious local youngster in a 12-round mauling match in the public hall arena here tonight, topping the Cleveland Amateur Baseball association's annual fight card.

The Rockford sheik is expected to win easily, but Goodman, who owns a hefty right wallop and who is reported to have developed a corking good left hook, is given a bit of a look in—not sufficient, enough however, to keep the Mandell lad from being a nine or ten to one favorite.

From all appearances, tonight's scrap will be a little of left wing Mandell is proficient in the use of his left hammer and in all probability, Goodman will attempt to beat the champion at his own game with a left for a left.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

ASK BIDS FOR NEW CITY HALL IN COLUMBIANA

Plans of Architect Have Been Approved; Will Be Fireproof

Columbiana, Feb. 3.—The Columbiana council has approved the plans for the new city hall, as made by Architect C. A. Kissinger of Youngstown and are advertising for bids, which will be opened Feburuary 27.

The new building will be 38x69, of fireproof construction, and will have two stories and basement, occupying the location of the old hall.

Mayer J. L. Hum has appointed A. G. Hofus to fill the vacancy on the local cemetery board, for a period of six months.

The father and son banquet will be fostered this year by the Columbiana Rotary club and will be held February 10 at the Presbyterian church. Rev. W. E. Hammaker of the Trinity M. E. church, Youngstown, will be the speaker for the occasion. Any local boy not having a father to sponsor his attendance is requested to give his name to H. W. Hammond and arrangements will be provided for his entertainment.

The affair is in charge of the following committee: C. W. Griswold, F. J. Scwall, H. A. Fullerton, Olaf Todd and D. H. Hepburn.

C. M. Henderson has resigned his position with the Art Engraving company of Youngstown, to accept the vice-presidency of the C. J. Horn company, lithographers and engravers of Erie, Pa. He will continue to make Columbiana his headquarters.

Mrs. Cassius Orr entertained at a 3-course dinner Thursday in honoring the 80th birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Harrold. The guests were former neighbors: Mrs. Jacob Yoder, Mrs. Alvina Sparkler, Mrs. Hannah Metzler, Mrs. Nicholas Stephli and Mrs. Anna Miller. During the afternoon, friends called to extend congratulations.

Hurt In Fall

Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reinehr fell, at the intersection of Union and S. Main streets, Monday evening and broke his right shoulder. As an added misfortune to the family, Charles Reinehr had his right hand badly mangled while at his work in the General Fireproofing company, Youngstown, and will be off duty for some time.

Members of the True Blue class of Grace Reformed Sunday school were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Arthur Myers, N. Main st. A covered dish dinner was followed by a business meeting, and then music and games were enjoyed.

Beginning Saturday evening, additional cars have been provided by the Youngstown & Suburban railway, for theater patrons, who may now leave Youngstown every hour during the evening until 12:30.

Following the basketball games Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gleckler entertained the members of the Franklin lassies at a luncheon. The team members present are: Misses Grace Frye, Mabel Brungard, Margaret Creed, Evelyn Shenk and Selma Gleckler. Among the other guests were: Mrs. Shenk, Donald Cope, Fred Pfaucker and Harold Slagle.

Among the Columbiana people attending the Cleveland auto show during the past week were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Warrick, Dr. W. S. Baker, Roy Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. L. Dunbar, and Mr. and Mrs. George V. Frye and son, George, Jr., the latter two remaining for a visit with relatives.

Isadore Bishop, one of Columbiana's three surviving Civil war veterans, is confined to his bed following a light stroke of paralysis, which has afected his righside.

Was Operated Upon

H. O. Messersmith has returned to his home from the Salem City hospital, where he recently underwent an operation.

Mrs. Hazel Coffee, Salem, has been spending several days with her aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Snyder, Middle st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kreider, east of town, are the parents of a son, named Otto Wayne, born Saturday.

Ina Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Esterly was taken to the Salem City hospital Thursday evening, where she submitted to an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Carl Schnurrenberger was called to Greensburg, Pa., Friday by the sudden death of a nephew.

Mrs. G. G. Pinkerton and Mrs. R. J. Esterly called on Mrs. W. Roy Guy Friday afternoon at the Salem Clinic hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seidner, New Springfield, were Columbiana shoppers Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Keyser was hostess to club associates Wednesday evening at her home, W. Park ave, with three tables of five hundred in play. Mrs. Elba Wilhelm won the prize for high score and Mrs. Roy Kerr the consolation. Mrs. Margaret Galbreath, Lisbon, was a guest. Following the games a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Harry Lake will be the next club hostess.

Mabel Improving

Monrovia, Cal., Feb. 3.—Mabel Normand, film actress, was reported to be somewhat improved today, although her physicians stated that she would be given a transfusion operation this week to help her in gaining strength. The actress is being treated at a sanitarium here for tuberculosis.

MOVIES

"RIO RITA"
At the State

Hollywood's biggest and most beautiful chorus stamps the last step of the "kinkajou" at the State tonight, where "Rio Rita" the all-talking, all musical extravaganza starts its four-day run.

Bebe Daniels is featured in the film version of the famous Ziegfeld musical show and heads a large cast which includes John Boles, Don Alvarado, Bert Wheeler, Robert Woolsey, Dorothy Lee, Helen Kaiser, Georges Renevant and Eva Rosita.

With much of the show filmed in technicolor, the musical tale of love and adventure in the Rio Grande country is one of the most sumptuous spectacles that has ever come out of Hollywood.

"BATTLE OF PARIS"
At the Grand

American motion picture fans, for the first time will have the opportunity to hear the popular recreation songs of "The Battle of Paris," collected into one great comedy picture, under the same title.

"The Battle of Paris" was that never-ending engagement of the men who were on leave in Paris and out to have a good time. This spirit and theme has been woven into a different motion picture starring Gertrude Lawrence, the popular musical comedy player, who sings songs in the style that has made her the toast of Broadway.

Charles Ruggles, thecomedian who will be remembered for his part in "Gentlemen of the Press" and "The Lady Lies," appears with Miss Lawrence in "The Battle of Paris" at the Grand theater.

ARCHITECT ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Cites Reasons Why First Hearing was Improper; Accuses Judge

Canton, O., Feb. 3.—Hearing a motion for a new trial for Albert L. Thayer, New Castle, Pa., Architect, who was found guilty by a jury here of bribery in connection with the construction of the Molly Stark Tuberculosis Sanitarium, was scheduled today before Common Pleas Judge Charles Krichbaum.

Defense Attorney Walter S. Ruff has been confined to his home for several days by illness, however, and it was indicated that the arguments of the motion may be delayed.

Sixteen grounds of alleged error, including misconduct on the part of the trial judge and council for the State, are listed in Thayer's application for a new trial.

Thayer was convicted last week of having sought a $7,500 bribe from George F. S. Melbourne, general contractor, after having "juggled" linoleum specifications in the contract for the tuberculosis hospital. He faces a prison sentence of from one to ten years. Should the motion for a new trial be overruled, defence attorneys will carry the case to the court of appeals.
